

South Carolina SHRM State Council Awarded For Elevating Human Resources, Improving Workplaces

Charleston S.C. – May 22, 2020 – The Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), the world’s largest HR professional society, presented South Carolina SHRM State Council (SC SHRM) with the 2019 Platinum Excellence Award. The Excel award is SHRM’s top honor, recognizing outstanding achievements in state council operations and a commitment to providing meaningful program and services to HR professionals.

The EXCEL award is given to state councils and chapters to recognize major accomplishments, strategic activities, and tactical initiatives that elevate the profession of human resources.

“So much of SHRM’s impact on the world of work can be traced back to the dedication and hard work of our chapters and state councils like South Carolina SHRM State Council. These leaders took the initiative and drove changes to make workplaces where employers and employees can thrive together,” said Johnny C. Taylor, Jr., SHRM-SCP, president and chief executive officer of SHRM. “The Platinum Excel Award is not only a celebration of the great work done by South Carolina SHRM State Council—it’s also a recognition of the grit it took to do it.”

The EXCEL Award can be earned at four levels: bronze, silver, gold and platinum. Each level has a prescribed set of requirements and accomplishments that must be met. South Carolina SHRM State Council receive recognition in SHRM publications and at conferences, a logo to display on its website, and information to share with its members about the significance of this award.
